1. On 2 October 1950 three Soviet destroyers sailed into the harbor at Sassnitz on the Island of Rügen. They came from the direction of Pillau. Two of them were oil burners, one a coal burner. They lay off shore and put out skiffs which took packages ashore. As soon as the barks returned, the destroyers steamed in the direction of Wismar. No other movements of Soviet warships were reported around the island during the period between 30 September and 20 October 1950.
2. About one half of the Soviet guard at Sassnitz Harbor, consisting of approximately 300 men, has been replaced by German border police.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
